Message from the Chairman

To celebrate our 30 years as an amateur theatre society, we decided to put on two shows this October season. "Comedy Tonight" and "The Magic Faraway Tree". (We are also staging a "Once Only" performance of our revue "Be Our Guest" that we did in conjunction with Stage Door in Springs during August this year.)

We are a non-profit society with our main aim to introduce the "youth" of the East Rand to the theatre. Our shows are totally open, restricted only by age. We have been fortunate to attract a multi-racial cast for our last few shows. We classify our shows as "Junior", with a cast mainly between the ages of 7 years to mid-teens, and "Senior", with a cast mainly between mid-teens and mid-twenties. The Magic Faraway Tree is a junior production. The director is an "old" Protea actress and it's her first time venture into directing. Our committee and production team are mainly in their mid-twenties or younger with only a few "oldies" providing continuity.

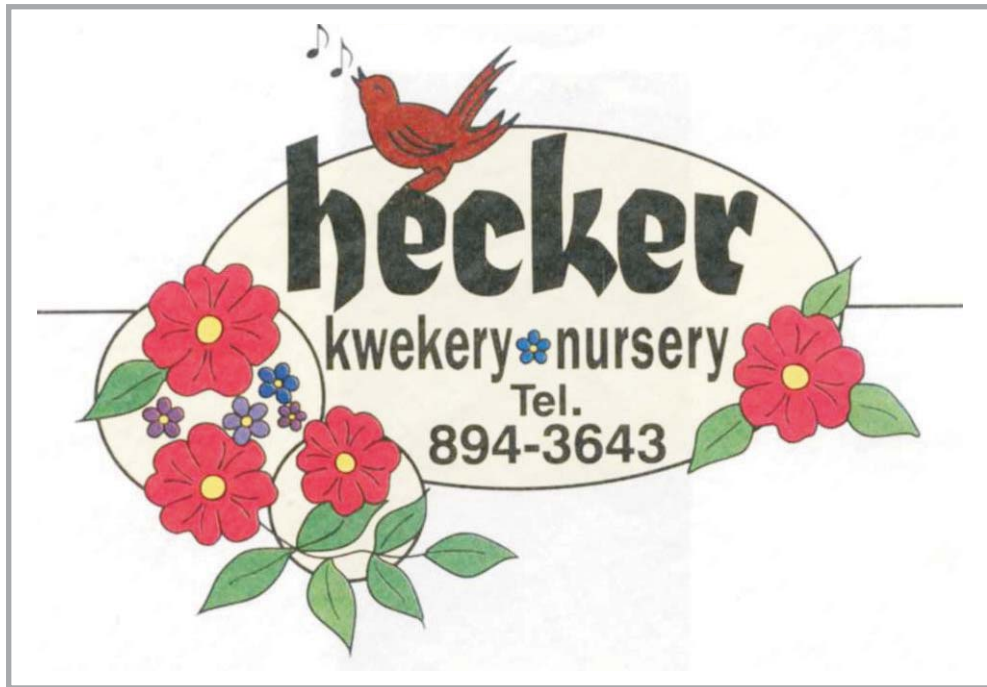

We started life in Benoni during the sixties as a choral society and progressed into a youth theatrical group with "The Bells of Bruges" in 1972. By 1975 Protea was producing two "senior" shows a year. During 1979 the "junior" section was formed with their first show "Captain and His Floating Zoo". We continue with this successful format to this day with our repertoire showing the distinction between the two groups with Can-Can and West Side Story on the one hand and Mary Poppins and Peter Pan on the other.

We are also pleased that many of our players have gone on to make it professionally or semi-professionally both locally and overseas.

So sit back and enjoy our show.

The advertisement for Hyde's Man's Shop features a black and white illustration of a man in a tuxedo, top hat, and bow tie, holding a cane and saluting. To the right of the illustration, the text reads: "... It's always a pleasure!" followed by "Hyde's Man's Shop" in a large, elegant script font. Below this, it says "Directors: P.D. Hyde; V.I. Hyde". At the bottom, two locations are listed: "East Rand Mall, Easgate, Benoni" and "Westgate, Lakeside Mall".

Message from the Director

These last two and a half months have been, for me, ones of great enjoyment as well as occasional frustration. Yet the kids and I have come through the highs and lows together and I am very proud of them all.

They are my "Faraway" children. Well done to you all for working so hard to put on a "magic" show.

Would I do it again?

Definitely Not!!

Well maybe!

Alright, come talk to me again next year.
